Share ideas and challenges with like-minded business owners and sales leaders so you can:

- Get support from a collaborative group of individuals
- Increase your average sale value
- Learn new skills and polish existing skills
- Ensure your business development activities can TRULY work for you
- Empower you (and your team if you have one) to sell more, and sell more often.

What's involved each year?

- Monthly conference call with your group.
- Develop quarterly plans, strategies and actions.
- Group wide accountability for completing your agreed actions.
- Business Development coaching.
- Unlimited phone and email support.
- Regular updates on new concepts / ideas to overcome roadblocks.

Throughout the programme we will encourage you to share your successes and learnings with the Group. Each Group session will have a roadblock solving forum where others in the Group will act as your advisers along with Phil to solve your specific issues.

This is no warm and fluffy coaching forum – there will be tight accountability – we want you to get the results you want.
